Oki and Welcome

The cast and crew of Shrek the Musical would like to acknowledge that we are learning here together on traditional Blackfoot Confederacy territory. We honour the Blackfoot people and their traditional ways of knowing in caring for this land, as well as all Indigenous peoples who have helped shape and continue to strengthen our community.

A note from the Director...

Thank you so much for attending our production of Shrek the Musical! The cast and crew are so excited to share our version of Shrek with all of you. It is so special to be able to perform again at Winston Churchill High School.

Churchill is a one of a kind community that I am so fortunate to be a part of. Throughout this process I was constantly blown away by the amount of support from the humans at Churchill. I would like to take this time to give special thanks to a few individuals, who without Shrek would not have been able to come to life! I would like to give a special thanks to Kade Hogg for supporting the music in this production, assisting with direction, and constantly promising me that everything would be okay. Another individual I would like to give thanks to is Myles Havinga. Without Myles we would not have our swamp, our tower, our pinnochio, and so much more! Thank you to Patti DeGorter for graciously creating and mending costumes for the students. I cannot express my thanks for Morgan Day enough. Her wisdom and support have truly brought this production to life. And finally, thank you to Gen Ahart, and Ashley McKenzie for their continued support.

Shrek is a musical that celebrates all things weird. I think when most people think of Shrek they think about an Ogre, some onions, and Eddie Murphy. After reading this script through it is clear that at it's core Shrek is a story about accepting and celebrating our differences, a concept that rings true at Churchill.

Sit back, relax, and enjoy some LIVE THEATRE!

Stay weird, and let your freak flag fly.
